Appellee.)

APPELLANT’S UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR AN EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE REPLY BRIEF

Pursuant to United States Court of Veterans Appeals Rules 26(b), Appellant, Michelle A. Chrystal, through counsel, respectfully moves the Court for an 18 day extension of time in which to file the Reply Brief in this matter. The Secretary’s Brief was served upon Appellant on July 11; therefore Appellant’s Reply Brief is presently due on July 25, 2016. The requested due date is August 12, 2016. Counsel for the Secretary has been contacted and interposes no objection to this request.

To date, Counsel for the Secretary has requested and received a total of 45 days of extensions of time in this matter and, prior to this request, Counsel for Appellant received 0 days. If granted, Appellant’s request will bring her total to 18 days.

Good cause exists for this request. Counsel is preparing Rule 33 memoranda and participating in briefing conferences in two other matters, Massenburg v. McDonald, 16-1289, and Barney v. McDonald, 16-1292, while also working on the Reply brief for this complicated case. Given these demands, the undersigned requests an additional 18 days to complete Appellant’s Reply Brief.

WHEREFORE, Appellant respectfully requests that the Court grant Appellant's motion to file her Reply Brief on or before August 12, 2016.

Respectfully submitted,
MICHELLE A. CHRYSTAL
